Hi all,
After hearing that some of my colleagues have been handing out food in large quantities to the people living around the civic center, I thought it might be valuable for the employees to hear from people who work on this issue first hand.
Would you all be able to come to a brief meeting on January 31st at noon at CHE to address the staff in Central Trials (the largest staff of the criminal branch) on best practices for assisting the folks downstairs?
Victor, SLO Helper had suggested to the employees that they donate food to the shelters or work with LAHSA to see what experts like you think would be a beneficial use of the employee's desire to help the people living in the Civic Center area. Are you able to come and share your thoughts?
Thanks,
Gita
